WORDS FROM OUR MAYOR

As the proud mayor of the City of Muscle Shoals, I am delighted to see the progress this city makes on a daily basis. Our history has laid a path we are currently paving to an even brighter future. This is a place where you can gain an education, establish a career, build a family, completely invent or reinvent yourself, and most importantly, call home. It is an honor to work alongside the City Council Members and other leaders and citizens to make this city, Muscle Shoals.

One Day At A Time

According to the Merriam-Webster Dictionary, a city is defined as "an inhabited place of greater size, population, or importance than a town or village". To be a city, to see one flourish, is to fill it with industrialization and a community who encompasses morals, the desire to educate, and the resources necessary to positively shape the future. This does not happen overnight. The process of reaching a point where this city has already surpassed takes years of building a solid foundation. From swamps and mussel shells to Wilson Dam to TVA to Fame Recording Studios to Muscle Shoals City Schools, the future of this city is looking bright. Development is a key factor, and our city's people are fulfilling their responsibilities of taking care of what we deem the greatest place on earth.
