Whereas the city of Beth-El, Israel has expressed their desire to form a partnership with The Shoals Quad Cities, believing that this new relationship will be mutually beneficial to both, and

Whereas many from our community have traveled to The Holy Land of Israel, appreciating their roots in antiquity as well as acknowledging them as a modern, technologically advanced nation from which we have much to glean including their academic, commercial, and civil affairs, and

Whereas Alabama has a long history of joining together with the Israeli people, beginning in June, 1943 with a Unanimous Joint Resolution by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama (Act 144, SJR 4. 1943 Regular Session) calling for the establishment of the Jewish State and homeland for the Jewish peoples – a full five years before they were officially declared a nation, and

Whereas it is our desire to build friendships and mutually-beneficial relationships between our communities, fulfilling the vision of President Eisenhower in 1956, who formed what we now know as the Sister Cities International Organization, for the sake of promoting peace and prosperity throughout the world, now

Therefore be it resolved that in the interests of establishing a dialogue between the people of Beth-El and the people of The Shoals, the City of Muscle Shoals does hereby recognize a new Sister City relationship between The Shoals cities of Florence, Muscle Shoals, Sheffield, and Tuscumbia in northwest Alabama and the community of Beth-El, Israel, and
